

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

NORFOLK, SS.

SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

COMMONWEALTH

v.

COMMONWEALTH'S POTENTIAL WITNESS LIST & NOTICE OF INTENT TO CALL CERTAIN WITNESSES AS EXPERT WITNESSES

Now comes the Commonwealth in the above-captioned matter providing the following potential witness list:

1. Detective Robert Gervasi, Weymouth Police Department
2. Detective Michael Brennan, Weymouth Police Department
3. Detective Erin Metcalf, Weymouth Police Department
4. Captain Richard Fuller, Weymouth Police Department
5. Detective Tomas Anderson, Weymouth Police Department
6. Lt. Thomas Farrell, Weymouth Police Department
7. Det. Robert West, Weymouth Police Department
8. Officer Eric Schraut, Weymouth Police Department
9. Det. Paul Smith, Randolph Police Department
10. Sgt. Anthony Marag, Randolph Police Department
11. Det. Michael Duran, Quincy Police Department
12. Det. Robert Joseph, Braintree Police Department
13. Sgt. Charles Kane, Massachusetts State Police
14. Kate Corbett, Chemist, Department of Public Health, State Laboratory

In accordance with Mass. R. Crim. P. 14, the Commonwealth provides notice of the following prospective expert witnesses' names and business addresses:

- 1) Det. Robert Gervasi, Weymouth Police Department, 140 Winter Street,
Weymouth, MA 02188
- 2) Sgt. Charles Kane, Massachusetts State Police, Norfolk District Attorney's Office
Narcotics Unit.

The Commonwealth intends to offer opinion testimony from this witness as an expert witness in the areas of the distribution of narcotics including cocaine, the consistency of certain weights and quantities of cocaine to distribution and/or personal use, the street values of cocaine, the packaging of cocaine for sale, and other areas within his expertise relating to the distribution of cocaine at the street level. Det. Gervasi's wrote a police report and an affidavit containing his CV in the form of a statement of expertise which were turned over to the defendants at arraignment. (see Notice of Discovery I) (Sgt. Kane's CV is attached)

- 3) Kate Corbett, Department of Public Health, State Laboratory, 305 South Street,
Jamaica Plain, MA

The Commonwealth intends to offer testimony from these witnesses as expert witnesses in the area of the analysis and testing of controlled substances, including the weight and substance at issue in this case. The chemist prepared drug analysis certification reports for substances seized in this case and these certifications have been provided to defense counsel. (CV provided. (see Notice of Discovery VII)

Respectfully submitted
For the Commonwealth,

Debi Payton
Assistant District Attorney